OSB celebrated White Cane Safety Day at Arrowhead Mall, thanks to OSB PTO.

Students in O&M classes came to the mall to educate the community on the purpose of the white cane and how they travel independently.

The Muskogee Phoenix highlighted Ms. Woods and Gunner Harris demonstrating these skills in an article published on Wednesday, October 14.

mation regarding the blind and visually impaired and to learn about the Oklahoma School for the Blind, its long history, and how we continue to strive, to empower students from across the state of Oklahoma to be independent, self-sufficient, productive individuals.

Demonstrations about Orientation and Mobility, Outreach, Dog Guides, Independent Living Skills, Braille, etc. were conducted by OSB students and faculty.

White Cane Day is an educational program to help inform our community about the aspirations, hopes and abilities of individuals who are blind and visually impaired.

OSB also had display booths from Independent Living Skills department, Braille committee and Outreach.

Local organizations also had displays, including Nano Pac, NewView Oklahoma, Guiding Eyes for the Blind, Visual Services, Vocational Rehabilitation, Oklahoma Council of the Blind and National Federation of the Blind.

Boys Bash 2015

On October 13th I was asked by Mrs. Sterling to accompany some of our 8th grade young men to "Boys Bash 2015", which was held at Fort Gibson's Field House.

"Boys Bash" is an event where 7th thru 9th grade young men from public schools all over this area gather for educational lessons concerning sex and sexuality. It is sponsored every year by the Crisis Pregnancy Center and by my estimation there were several hundred young men in attendance.

I personally felt that the information shared was very informative and relevant for the young men and hopefully will aid them in making wise personal choices in their future.

OSB's students seemed to be attentive and they also enjoyed the BBQ lunch, which was supplied for those who attended.

Girl Scouts - Update

THIS CHICK LOVES TO CAMP
Clipart: Chick roasting a marshmallow in front of a tent, with text "This chick loves to camp"

Girl Scout Troop 11224 began the year with a weekend long Jamboree at Camp Wah-Shah-She in Bartlesville, Ok.

The Girls enjoyed campfires, canoeing, hiking, crafting, and learning to cook on a camp stove. They learned all about the legends of Wah-Shah-She and completed their bronze boot while at the event.

And best of all, out of the 20 or so troops at the event we won the Best Gate Post for 2015. The girl's campsite post was made up of Cardboard Wonder Woman and Bat Girl standing guard below a troop flag stating "We Read Braille, What's Your Super Power?" They also decorated each tent with capes and super hero masks and filled the trees with glittering super lights.

2015 Jamboree certificate "Best Gate Post - Congratulations!!" with a girl with backpack shown below

We will be participating in a special Juliette Gordon Low event in November to honor her many contributions to scouting.

Girl Scout registration is still open.

Try new things. Make new friends. Go on more adventures than you can count. With us, there's a whole world of new opportunities waiting for you.

If you are interested in joining our group as a Girl Scout or Volunteer, please contact Barbara Collins, Library, at Ext. 8236 or via email: bcollins@osb.k12.ok.us.

October 20, 2015 Mrs. Adams' and Mrs. Wassom's classes went to the Muskogee Civic Center to enjoy the Muskogee Fire Fighters Clown Society fire safety program.

The children were educated and entertained by these very brave public servants. Afterwards the two classes visited Fire Station No. 5 and the children were given free reign to explore a fire truck. There are several students who have added being a fireman to their "what I want to be when I grow up" list. It was a great field trip!

Kathy Adams,
Teacher

Safety rules everyone should know:

- Crawl low to the ground if your room is full of smoke.
- When to dial 911 and what information to provide.
- Use the back of your hand to see if the door is hot.
- Always make sure that handles of cooking pans are not pointing off the stove.

FCCLA Update

On Wednesday, Oct. 21st, FCCLA members traveled to Ft. Gibson High School for the NE District II meeting.

Artist's picture of the American flag with the bold eagle in the front

During the opening ceremony, members said the pledge of allegiance and listened to the Star Spangled Banner, which was performed by students from the Stillwell High School Band.

A representative from each school went on stage and introduced themselves, stated their chapter goals, and the number of members representing their school.

The keynote speaker was Oklahoma artist Richard Hight. He used a combination of art, music, and inspirational words to entertain and astound his audience.

He drew incredible pictures of horses and the American flag.

He told us a wonderful and funny story about his fifth grade year; how he began drawing.

After Mr. Hight was through speaking, OSB FCCLA members got to meet him and have their picture taken with him.

Group picture of artist, Richard Hight, and the OSB FCCLA members

The meeting was adjourned and FCCLA members went to Hornbacks in Muskogee for lunch.

It was a great day full of fun, laughter, and exciting new experiences. FCCLA members in attendance gave the day two thumbs up.

GOING THE EXTRA MILE - October 2015

Clipart: 'Thank You'. Letters in various colors.

Following employees were nominated for their devoted support of our students, staff and school:

Ann Page for always being there to help any student before, during, and after school.

Kathy Barrett

Laci Goins and Avonda Harris for volunteering to go with the band to OKC for the DRS Expo.

Chris Ferrell

Mike Bynum for helping out on home going by driving the bus.

Brian Culver

Mrs. Crouch and Laci Goins for going beyond the "Call of Duty" for our students.

Sylvia Sterling

Ruby Barker for embracing technology this year to help her braille students be part of a national research study. She works with her students as they VoiceOver on the iPads with a refreshable braille display and practice reading tasks. She has had to learn how to navigate the pilot app, then work with the kids as they learn to navigate this app. The students' reading rates and comprehension has increased this semester because of her openness to embracing this new technology. Thanks for going the extra mile!

Allison Garner for working with her Food Prep classes this year to make our year better. She and her classes have prepared snacks for visiting students at the Academic Team District Seeding Tournament. Her snacks for Outreach's teacher meeting were also a huge hit. The snacks were shared with teachers of the visually impaired, orientation and mobility instructors, and staff at the Oklahoma Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Thanks for going the extra mile!

Maggie Mattox for walking the extra mile down to my classroom to return the report cards I didn't get completely filled out.

Kathy Adams

Maggie Mattox for always going the extra mile when taking and recording attendance. She takes that job very seriously, and is only satisfied when she knows why a student is not in class, when he/she can be expected to return, and if he/she has that "doctor's note", as applicable and required by the OSB Handbook. We love you Maggie, keep up the good work!

Jane Thomas

Rachel Butler for giving up her lunch time many days and her prep time as well to help me learn how to write IEP's.

Jamie Wassom

Jamie Allenbaugh for being a tremendous help to me in both Math classes and PE classes. She definitely deserves this nomination.

Tera Webb

Bobby Carter for working 12 hour shifts to help cover staff shortages.

Cammeron Brice for volunteering to take on unassigned extra duties, e.g. scheduling route drivers for home going and pick up.

Avonda Harris, along with all her regular duties, transition training, and supervisor training, she is always willing to drive routes whenever asked.

Donald Baccus was willing to take a long route at the last minute on his wedding anniversary.

Ronnie Darden

Thank you guys for going the extra mile. It is highly appreciated.
